

Lesson: Attitude

Online education is not for everyone. A successful online learning student needs to be self-directed and have the following attributes:

1. Has a sincere desire to learn and participate in class activities
2. Maintains self-discipline and avoid procrastination
3. Communicates effectively with instructors
4. Is self-directed and self-motivated in his/her approach to learning
5. Possesses effective study skills and habits
6. Enjoys working independently and pacing his/her own learning
7. Fulfills course requirements in a timely manner
8. Has the ability to read carefully and follow written instructions
9. Possesses basic computer skills
10. Understands how to use e-mail and navigate the world wide web

Photo Attribution

Description: Jolly lady with thumbs up

Source: Shutterstock.com