

Direct Student Services
School Counseling Core Curriculum		Individual Student Planning		Response Services
Classroom Counseling Lesson	Group Counseling Lesson	Appraisal	Advisement
Planned and written curriculum designed to deliver academic, personal/social, and career classroom lessons . (e.g., study skills, career exploration, testing prep, college planning, career exploration, resilience, suicide prevention)	Planned and written academic, personal/social, and career group lesson . (e.g., college fairs, career fairs, financial aid night, college visits, group workshops, class meetings, financial aid workshops)	Assisting individual students explore future options by examining their abilities, interests, and skills (e.g.: assessing completion of grad requirements, check-in/check-out, PSAT/ACT/ SAT performance, career surveys, college searches)	Helping individual students make educational plans that support their academic, career and personal/social goals. (e.g., 4/6 year plans, financial aid planning, course selection, college planning, career planning)
Indirect Student Services
Referrals		Consultation		Collaboration
Directing students, and parents to school and/or community resources that will advance student’s personal/social, academic, and/or career development. (e.g., tutoring, mental health services, scholarships, SAT prep., SST, 504, etc.)		Consultation with other school staff, parents or community services to support student’s personal/social, academic, and/or career development.(parent consultations, teacher consultations, MFLC consultation, etc.)		Partnering with teachers, administrators, parents and community stakeholders to advocate for all students. (e.g., SIT, SST, resources sharing, joint presentations, committees, school boards,)
System Supports
Program Foundation Management and Accountability			Fair Share Responsibility
Organizing and maintaining the factors that fall under the foundation and management components of the National ASCA model (e.g., mission and vision, data analysis, action plans, calendars, etc.)			Fair share responsibilities are activities that all school faculty staff contributes to, including school counselors. (e.g., lunch duty, bus duty, proctoring assessments, consultation for the master schedule)
Non-School Counseling Tasks
Proving long-term therapy substitute	Developing the master schedule Testing Coordination	Keeping clerical records	Performing disciplinary actions	Serving as a