

Algebra 2*Unit: Rational Functions*Section: Graphing Rational Functions and Domain and Range*Audio

The following are not rational functions. The absolute value of  $x$  divided by the quantity  $x$  minus three. Natural logarithm of  $x$  divided by the quantity  $x$  minus three. These are not rational functions because the numerators do not represent polynomials.